GENERAL MEDIA INFO

BRAMLAGE COLISEUM

Bramlage Coliseum, the traditional home of the K-State men's and women's basketball teams, will host K-State volleyball for the 2021 season. Bramlage Coliseum is located at 1800 College Ave. on the south end of Bill Snyder Family Stadium (football). Media seating will be available on the north end of the court with postgame press conferences happening approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the match.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media attending K-State volleyball home matches must request access prior to attending a match. Requests, which can be made via email to Christopher Brown (cbrown@kstatesports.com), should be received no later than two days prior to a match. Access is granted to working media only. Credentials will be issued on a match-by-match basis, as members of the media will need to apply online at least 48 hours in advance for a home match or series. Credentials can be picked up at the Bramlage Coliseum Will Call Window located at the southeast corner of Bramlage.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with K-State student-athletes and coaches must be arranged through the Athletics Communications office. Please contact the communications contact for K-State volleyball to set up an interview. Home and cell phone numbers for student-athletes will not be given to the media, although student-athletes will grant phone interviews by other means.

Coach Suzie Fritz is available for interviews during the mornings on weekdays. Fritz will talk to reporters approximately 15 minutes after the end of each match.

Select student-athletes will be available after a match as well, following Coach Fritz's addressing of the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography access is limited to daily newspapers, wire services and special periodical publications. No flash photography is permitted and strobe use must be approved in advance. Photographers are required to stay behind the marked areas around the playing area.

PRACTICES

K-State volleyball typically practices from 3-5 p.m. at Bramlage Coliseum on weekdays. Please contact the volleyball communications contact if you wish to attend practice and to see the team's availability because of conditioning sessions and required days off.

YOUNG GUNS

- >> A true freshman led the Wildcats in kills, points, digs, blocks and aces in 2020. Mackenzie Morris played every set as the libero and paced the K-State defense in digs in all 21 matches - the first Wildcat freshman to do that in program history.

25-7

After moving to Bramlage Coliseum for the 2020 season, the Cats will remain at Bramlage for the next two seasons as they wait for their new arena to be built. K-State boasts a 25-7 all-time record in Bramlage after going 8-4 in 2020.

K-State was picked 3rd in the 2021 Big 12 Preseason Coaches' Poll - its highest projection since 2012 (3rd). It marks just the fifth time in the Big 12 era that the Cats have had a top-three finish in the preseason poll.

K-State finished the 2020 season in third place in the Big 12 standings - its highest finish since the 2008 season to mark the 10th time in Fritz's career the Wildcats have ended the year in the top four in the Conference.

 KANSAS STATE, '02

CAREER RECORD
 OVERALL: 363-236 (.606)
 BIG 12: 189-171 (.525)

Since taking the helm of the program in 2001, Suzie Fritz has established K-State volleyball as not only a contender in the Big 12 but also the nation. A Kansas native and part of the program since 1997, Fritz is K-State's winningest coach and has helped the program reach the NCAA Tournament 16 times, including 12 as the head coach.

Fritz boasts a career mark of 363-236 (.606) in her 20 seasons and has led the Wildcats to a national ranking in 12 different campaigns, including cracking the nation's top 10 during the fall of the 2020 season. She owns a 189-171 (.525) record in Big 12 action, with the 189 wins ranking third among Big 12 teams since 2001. Fritz helped lead the Wildcats to their first and only Big 12 title in 2003 when the nationally ranked Cats were 18-2 in conference and 30-5 overall.

From an individual standpoint, Fritz has helped guide 10 Wildcats to 16 All-America honors, including the program's only three-time honoree in Wildcat setter Katie Brand. In 2018, K-State had three All-America Honorable Mention selections - most in program history - in setter Sarah Dixon, opposite Gloria Mutiri and outside hitter Kylee Zumach. Mutiri was also named AVCA Midwest Freshman of the Year - just the second in K-State history - as well earning All-Big 12 Second Team honors.

In 2020, freshman outside hitter Aliyah Carter joined Mutiri and Zumach as the only AVCA Midwest Freshman of the Year recipients. Carter, who became K-State's second-ever Big 12 Freshman of the Year (Zumach), shattered the program's freshman record in both kills per set (4.11) and points per set (4.74) on her way to being named Big 12 Rookie of the Week five times.

The 2020 season saw an adjusted schedule that stretched across the fall and spring due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The fall portion held a conference-only slate, in which the Wildcats went 10-6 in Big 12 play to finish third in the league standings - their highest finish since the 2008 season. The fall poll, which ranked the four conferences that played during the fall, ranked the Cats as high as No. 10.

Under Fritz, the Wildcats have enjoyed great success in the classroom in addition to on the court. K-State has earned the most Academic All-Big 12 honors in conference history, including 148 since Fritz was named head coach in 2001, with a program-record 12 coming in 2018.

The Wildcats have also earned the prestigious AVCA Academic Team Award (3.3 team GPA or higher) 17 times under Fritz's direction, including in each of the last 11 years. In 2019, Brynn Carlson earned the program's sixth Academic All-American honor and first since 2010. JuliAnne Chisholm and Cari Jensen have combined to earn four Academic All-American honors under Fritz.

The Wildcats have accumulated 25 Academic All-District distinctions, including Carlson's most recent selection in 2020. Brand and Kersten Kober notched that achievement in 2015 and 2016. Kober was also named Big 12 Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015, the first recipient of the award in program history.

In 2018, K-State entered conference play 10-1, including a season-long eight-match winning streak. For the first time since 2011, the Wildcats swept the season series of the Sunflower Showdown - with a 3-1 home win over then-No. 22 KU before erasing a two-set deficit to win in five sets in Lawrence on Nov. 14. The Cats also picked up back-to-back wins over ranked opponents for the first time since 2011 with their four-set win over the Jayhawks and a road sweep of No. 24 Baylor on Oct. 20.

The 2016 season saw both Fritz and the K-State program reach new milestones. In a four-set victory over Mississippi State at Ahearn Field House, Fritz notched career win No. 300 while the program collected all-time win No. 800. Achieving a national ranking as high as No. 23, the Wildcats had their 11th 20-win season under Fritz with a top-four finish in the Big 12 for the second straight season.

The senior-laden squad earned their third straight NCAA Tournament appearance - and fifth in six seasons - as a quartet of senior starters propelled K-State to the No. 14 national seed, earning the right to host the first two rounds. After a first-round sweep of Lipscomb, the Cats played an all-time classic match against Ohio State in the second round. After dropping the first two sets to the Buckeyes, K-State stormed back to force a fifth and final set before missing out on a trip to the Sweet Sixteen by two points (17-15). It was K-State's 17th all-time NCAA Tournament appearance and 12th under Fritz.

The 2015 season saw a non-conference schedule that ended by facing two teams that went on to reach the regional rounds of the NCAA Tournament, K-State had to use a six-match winning streak in the middle of Big 12 slate, its longest conference winning streak since 2003, to finish in the top half of the Big 12 standings. Late wins over Oklahoma and Iowa State at home propelled K-State to its best conference finish since 2011 and a trip to Lincoln, Nebraska for the first round of postseason play for the fourth straight time.

Without a senior on its roster, the 2015 team relied on its core group of juniors to lead it to the 12th winning season in Fritz's tenure. While Brand finished as one of the top setters in the country, libero Kober helped the Wildcats lead the Big 12 in digs, a first for the program since 2002. Reininger and Sassini, meanwhile, picked up All-Big 12 Second Team honors with Reininger leading the team in blocks and Sassini logging the first Double-300 campaign by a Wildcat outside hitter since 1999.

Conversely, several underclassmen were forced to have prominent roles, with sophomore Bryna Vogel playing all six rotations for the first time in her career and the freshman duo of Macy Flowers and Alyssa Schultejeans making an impact in their first years. Flowers and Schultejeans were All-Big 12 Freshman Team recipients, making them the first pair of K-State teammates to earn all-freshman honors in the same season and setting the tone for future campaigns.

Fritz turned in one of her better coaching seasons in 2014 as K-State, despite boasting one of its youngest teams in recent history, used its steady mix of youth and veteran leadership to reach the NCAA Tournament for the 15th time in school history. The trip to the postseason, which ended in the first round against No. 20 Utah, capped a campaign in which the Wildcats went 22-9 and saw three players exhibit All-Big 12 performances. Freshman Kylee Zumach led the way as she was unanimously voted Big 12 Freshman of the Year, the first in school history, as well as All-Big 12 First Team and All-Big 12 Freshman Team. Brand, an All-Big 12 Freshman Team selection in 2013, joined Zumach on the First Team while senior Natali Jones, who was among the Big 12 leaders in blocks all season long, was named an honorable mention. Zumach and Brand - who both earned All-American honors - along with Katie Reininger (honorable mention), were also named to the AVCA Midwest All-Region Team, with Zumach earning all-region Freshman of the Year honors, another program-first, as well.

The Wildcats may have had standout individual performances surface at the end of the year in the form of postseason awards, but the group of 14 underclassmen and four seniors helped the 2014 team as a whole rebound to previous K-State standards. The regular-season wins, overall and in conference, were the most for the Wildcats in six years while the resiliency expressed by the team all year long helped them tie the program-record for most comeback wins (8) and best road/neutral record (13-5). The team had only seven returning letterwinners from the previous year, but under Fritz and coaching staff's watch, the Wildcats laid the groundwork for the young team to compete at a high level for years to come.

Although 2013 fell short of reaching the NCAA Tournament, the Wildcats still completed their third straight winning season with an 18-11 record and 10th winning campaign under the direction of Fritz. K-State captured three wins over ranked opponents, which included victories at No. 23 Cal and home triumphs over No. 25 Oklahoma and No. 25 Iowa State. Overall, K-State had five wins against teams ranked in the top 50 of the final RPI rankings. The Wildcats were best at home in Ahearn Field House where they went an impressive 10-2 and had four straight sweeps to end the home campaign. Also, nine Wildcats were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team - the most in the conference and tying the school-record - while Kaitlynn Pelger was named All-Big 12 First Team and Brand was named to the All-Big 12 Freshman Team.

The 2012 season featured the Wildcats' ninth trip to the NCAA Tournament with Fritz as the head coach. K-State compiled 21 wins in the regular season, highlighted by victories over ranked opponents Minnesota (No. 10), Dayton (No. 20) and Iowa State (No. 22). The Wildcats started the season 12-0 and even broke the school record for consecutive sets won when they captured 23 straight sets. The streak started with the fourth set against Oregon State on August 25 and lasted eight matches until K-State dropped the first set in the win against Minnesota on September 14. In non-conference play, the Wildcats won 11 of its 13 regular-season matches in straight sets.

In 2011, K-State ended a two-year NCAA Tournament drought in thrilling fashion. The Wildcats won four of their final six matches, helping them earn a trip to Lincoln, Nebraska for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament. After dispatching Wichita State in straight sets in the first round, the Wildcats were left to face the No. 2 team in the country, Nebraska, on its home court at the Nebraska Coliseum. The Wildcats pulled out a five-set upset of the Cornhuskers, the program's first win against a top-10 team since 2003, and moved on to the Sweet 16 for the second time with Fritz as the head coach. The victory against Nebraska was the first time the Huskers had lost an NCAA Tournament match at home in the first two rounds. It also ended a 16-year streak for the Cornhuskers in which they reached the regional semifinals. The Wildcats later lost to Pepperdine in Hawai'i in the regional semifinals, but nonetheless, K-State had another 20-win season in hand after finishing the year 22-11.

Fritz and former Wildcat and current Clemson head coach Michaela Franklin embrace following K-State's 3-2 victory over the Tigers on Sept. 5, 2019 at Bramlage Coliseum.

While the team enjoyed great success in 2011, Pelger, a middle blocker, became just the seventh different Wildcat in program history to earn All-America honors. The Olathe, Kansas native was named AVCA All-America Honorable Mention in 2011 - a feat she repeated in 2012 - as well as Volleyball Magazine Third Team All-American. Fritz has seen K-State earn nine All-America honors in her time as head coach and 12 All-America accolades since she was a K-State assistant coach starting in 1997.

Both the 2009 and 2010 seasons featured young Wildcat teams that fell short of a winning record, but still contained many highlights. In 2009, K-State upset No. 23 Texas A&M in a Big 12 match in Ahearn Field House, snapping a streak of 21 straight losses to ranked opponents. The Wildcats also won the BYU Nike Classic in 2009. During the 2010 season, Lauren Mathewson cemented her name in the K-State record books by finishing her career with 1,755 digs, which were second-most in program history. Also, Pelger became the first K-State freshman to be selected to the All-Big 12 Freshman team.

The 2008 K-State team reached the NCAA Tournament and finished 20th in the final AVCA Coaches Poll. The Wildcats finished third in the Big 12 with a 14-6 record and had to travel to Seattle for the first round of the NCAA Tournament, where they fell to Santa Clara in five sets. Three players earned All-Big 12 honors that season while Nataly Korobkova earned her second All-American honor when she was named to the AVCA All-America Third Team.

Behind Korobkova's first All-American season in 2007, K-State reached the NCAA Tournament once again, advancing to the second round. Korobkova, Fritz's fifth All-American as a head coach, had 498 kills in her first season, earning Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors, an All-Big 12 First Team selection and AVCA All-Region VI accolades in addition to the All-American nod. Similar to 2008, K-State finished third in the Big 12 with a 14-6 record in 2007.

The Wildcats have averaged a fourth-place finish in the powerful Big 12 under Fritz, but in the off-year of 2006, the team finished 10th. Key injuries also helped end the team's impressive run of postseason appearances.

In 2005, the team reached 20 wins for the seventh consecutive season, going 21-11, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the eighth straight year. K-State opened the campaign with the second 8-0 start in school history and first since the 1998 season. The Wildcats broke single-season school records for team total blocks (354.5) and team block assists (621). The squad was also successful in the classroom as K-State put eight Wildcats on the first and second teams of the Academic All-Big 12 teams.

The dominance at the net by the Wildcats would become a trend under Fritz's leadership. After setting the blocks record in 2005, K-State would post the second-best total blocks mark the following season and raise the bar again in 2007, tabulating a school-record 357.5. In terms of block assists, Fritz's teams all hold the top-five totals in school history, including a program-best 643 in 2007.

The direction of the program continued rising in Fritz's fourth year with another trip to the NCAA Tournament and 20 wins in 2004. The Wildcats finished with a 20-11 record and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to national powerhouse, the University of Southern California.

Fritz led the Wildcats to their first conference championship in school history in 2003, which was just her third year as head coach. K-State posted a 30-5 record and was a perfect 18-0 at home in Ahearn Field House. After losing the first two matches of the season, the Wildcats went on winning streaks of 12 and 16 matches en route to the conference title. K-State took both matches from conference power Nebraska, including just the program's second win on the road against the Cornhuskers in October.

Lauren Goehring and Gabby Guerre were both named All-Americans for their contributions during the 2003 season with Goehring earning first team honors and Guerre receiving an honorable mention. Goehring was also the school's first conference player of the year. The Wildcats had three players on the All-Big 12 first team with an additional two as honorable mentions.

Following her debut season, Fritz took the team again to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, a streak of post-season tournament appearances that would become five straight for the Wildcats under Fritz's leadership.

Three Wildcats were named first team All-Big 12 in 2002, marking the fifth year in a row - all under Fritz's tenure - that the program placed two players on the league's first team. The 2002 squad gained valuable experience with a number of players returning the next year for the most successful season in school history.

55 All-Big 12 selections

In her inaugural season as the K-State head coach, Fritz led the Wildcats to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and a 20-8 record. It was the highest winning percentage in school history (.714) by a first-year coach.

Also in 2001, Liz Wegner became the first player in K-State history to be named an All-American team twice in her career, as she was named an honorable mention All-American by Volleyball Magazine. Wegner joined fellow senior Lisa Mimick on the 2001 All-Big 12 First Team.

Fritz began her head coaching career at K-State as an interim head coach after Jim McLaughlin left the program shortly before the start of the 2001 season. After a 9-5 start in her first year, Fritz was named the program's permanent head coach. She took the reins from McLaughlin after serving as his top assistant for four years.

On Sept. 9, 2016, Fritz collected her 300th career victory at K-State while the program tallied victory No. 800 after a four-set win over Mississippi State at Ahearn Field House.

As an assistant coach for the Wildcats, Fritz was one of the chief architects of K-State's success from 1997-2000. She helped guide the program to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including its first appearance in the round of 16 of the tournament in 2000. In that span, the Wildcats posted a 103-52 (.665) overall record, including a 75-36 (.676) mark in Big 12 play. The program recorded four straight final AVCA/USA Today Top 25 finishes, including a then-program-best 16th ranking to conclude the 2000 season.

The team developed into a force in one of the nation's toughest conferences, finishing in the top five each year. The Wildcats had a then school-record second place finish in 2000 with a 14-6 record. As the head coach, Fritz would best that conference mark with a 16-4 record in 2002 and better it yet at 18-2 in the title year of 2003.

While an assistant at K-State, she helped produce two All-Americans - including the program's first in Dawn Cady in 1999 - along with three all-district selections, 11 All-Big 12 honorees, and 22 Academic All-Big 12 picks.

Prior to coming to K-State in 1997, Fritz spent two years as an assistant coach at NJCAA power Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kansas. During her stay with Barton County, she helped guide the Cougars to a 111-14 (.888) overall record and a pair of top five finishes at the NJCAA National Tournament. She helped coach two first team All-Americans, two NJCAA All-Tournament picks, seven Region VI honorees, and five Academic All-Americans.

Fritz also played two years at Barton County from 1990-91, helping lead the Cougars to a 107-10 (.915) overall record and back-to-back Final Four finishes at the NCJAA Tournament as the team's starting setter. During her sophomore campaign, she was named the school's Most Valuable Player and to the All-Tournament team at the NCJAA Tournament. She was also named to the Volleyball Academic All-American team. She ranked ninth in school history in single-season assists with 1,219 set in 1991.

After two years at Barton, Fritz transferred to Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe) for her junior season before transferring to Florida Atlantic for her senior campaign, finishing her playing career in 1994. She was named the Florida Atlantic's Most Inspirational Player and was an All-Tournament selection.

Upon earning a bachelor's degree in exercise science and wellness education from Florida Atlantic in 1994, she spent a year as an assistant coach at her alma mater before returning to coach at Barton County in 1995.

Fritz earned a master's degree in educational administration and leadership from Kansas State in August of 2002.

Fritz has also served as a coach for the USA Women's Volleyball program. She was appointed to a coaching role with the A2 team in 2006, and in 2009, she was named the A2 head coach, taking the team to a third-place finish at the USA Adult Open Volleyball Championship. In 2013, Fritz and the K-State Wildcats represented the United States at the World University Games in Kazan, Russia.

She also served as the keynote speaker at the AVCA National Convention in 2008, presenting on various aspects of the game.

Fritz is not the first coach in her family. Steve, her husband, was an assistant coach for K-State track and field for 21 years and served as the head boys basketball coach at Riley County High School. Her parents and both brothers have served in some coaching capacity as well. Suzie's father, Larry Wiemers, spent more than 25 years as head football coach at Clay Center High School. Her brother, Dave, was an assistant football coach at Pittsburg State from 2011-19 after serving as the head coach at Emporia State from 2001-06, and brother, Jon, is the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Southeast Missouri State. Suzie's mother, Sandi, has been involved in baton twirling for years and has held positions in her national and world organizations.

A native of Clay Center, Kansas, the former Suzie Wiemers was married to Steve Fritz on June 17, 2000. Steve Fritz, a member of the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame, was a decathlete who placed fourth in the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games. The couple has two children, Thomas Jon (T.J.) and Jake.

THE FRITZ FAMILY

Jeff Grove has been an assistant coach at K-State for 22 of the last 24 years, with the 2020 season being his 19th consecutive season with the Wildcats since rejoining the program under Suzie Fritz in 2002. From helping orchestrate the rise of the program in the late '90s to maintaining its success with Fritz for the last 19 years, Grove has played a big role in K-State being one of the nation's top programs.

In his 21 years as an assistant, a stretch that includes 15 winning seasons, Grove has helped lead K-State to 403 wins, 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, and a Big 12 Conference title in 2003. As the defensive coordinator for the team, he has also coached a number of great defensive players, including two-time Big 12 Liberos of the Year Laura Downey-Wallace and Angie Lastra, First Team All-Big 12 and AVCA All-American Lauren Goehring, and Volleyball Magazine All-American and three-time First Team All-Big 12 Kaitlynn Pelger.

"It's very unusual to have the opportunity in the coaching business to work with someone as long as Jeff and I have. He is a man of strong character and commitment and is philosophically a great fit for K-State and the way we want to do things," Fritz said. "He has tremendous technical knowledge, understands training at a high level and is excellent with statistical measurement and analysis. I trust in and have the highest respect for him, both as a person and a volleyball coach."

In addition to the role as the defensive coach, the California native is the team's associate head coach, helping in the development of all phases of the program, coordinating and evaluating all statistical and video applications, creating opponent scouting reports and game plans, and organizing tape exchanges.

Grove has coached many outstanding defensive players in K-State history, including Lastra, the most prolific libero for the Wildcats. Lastra finished her career atop the career digs list with 2,032 - a record that still stands. She holds multiple school records, including digs by a freshman and senior as well as digs by any Wildcat in a season. Lastra was also the first libero to be named Big 12 Player of the Week before the conference created an award for both offense and defense.

Grove also helped develop libero Lauren Mathewson, who recorded three of the top-six performances in terms of digs in a single season in program history. Mathewson, a three-time Academic All-Big 12 selection, is second in school history in career digs.

That trend of great liberos has continued with recent graduate Kersten Kober, who finished her career with three consecutive 400-dig seasons - including 2015 when she had 500, the seventh-most by a Wildcat in program history. Kober, the 2015 Big 12 Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, amassed 1,554 career digs to place her fourth all-time in the K-State record books.

During Grove's first tour in Manhattan, he was one of the original members of Jim McLaughlin's staff at K-State and a significant component in building the successful Wildcat program of today. He Gene Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017, and in three years under his leadership, the Wildcats have recorded championship performances on the field and in the classroom, in addition to continued fundraising success and immediately improving the facility infrastructure to enhance the experience of all Wildcat student-athletes.

Highlighting Taylor's tenure competitively has been back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor Women's Track and Field championships, two football bowl appearances and a Big 12 Championship and Elite 8 appearance from the men's basketball team, while Taylor and staff fundraised and have begun to implement a department-wide facility master plan that will benefit all Wildcat teams.

Taylor's strategic plan for the department places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

On the coaching front, Taylor hired Chris Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in his first season went 8-5 which included a win over No. 5 Oklahoma and a Liberty Bowl appearance against Navy. Taylor has also hired Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Pete Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats back to the Big 12 Championship in his first year on the job.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor's first year in the Little Apple was met with championship performances in addition to finalizing a senior leadership team, meeting K-Staters from all over the country, continued fundraising success and immediately continuing to improve facilities for all programs and student-athletes. In 2017-18, K-State won a Big 12 Outdoor Women's Track and Field championship, recorded a bowl win over UCLA and had an Elite 8 appearance from the men's basketball team, while Taylor and staff fundraised and announced plans for a new $15 million Baseball and Soccer Facility that is currently under construction.

In addition to achieving a budget surplus for the ninth, 10th and 11th straight years, the department also saw fans and donors contributing $44.4 million in total giving in FY 2019, which is the second-largest figure in department history and marked only the second time ever to eclipse the $40 million mark, while $18.3 million was designated for the department's annual fund. Fans also contributed in FY 2018 a total of $30.9 million, of which a record $18.9 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program surpassing its budgeted goal.

As Athletics Director at North Dakota State, Taylor immediately spearheaded a comprehensive evaluation of the Bison athletic department in 2001, all while successfully guiding the athletics program through the unpredictable waters of reclassification to NCAA Division I from Division II and securing conference affiliations for all 16 sports. The Bison are currently members of The Summit League, Missouri Valley Football Conference and the Big 12 Conference (wrestling).

Taylor also played an instrumental part of forming the Great West Football Conference in February 2004, an affiliation that gave the Bison football program an immediate home in Division I.

The success of the football program is well documented, highlighted by three-straight FCS National Championships in 2011, 2012 and 2013 under head coach Craig Bohl as the Bison quickly became one of the most revered football programs in all levels of college sports.

In addition to football, the NDSU men's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and women's golf programs all regularly qualified for NCAA tournaments, highlighted by softball advancing to the 2009 Super Regional, while the Bison totaled 53 Summit League team championships since 2009 under Taylor's guidance in addition to 62 Academic All-Americans, three NCAA Woman of the Year national qualifiers, four NCAA Elite 89 selections and 20 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners.

The NDSU athletics budget tripled from $5 million in Taylor's first year to $15 million, while the scholarship endowment grew to $11.2 million, and Team Makers booster club support tripled from $750,000 to $2.8 million.

In 2014, Taylor accepted the role of deputy athletics director at Iowa where he has been responsible for the administrative oversight of the department's day-to-day operations while also serving as the leading advisor to the Director of Athletics and the primary decision maker in his absence.

He also supervised and managed all the department's administrative units, capital projects as well as serving as the direct sport supervisor for field hockey, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's soccer, baseball and wrestling. Taylor also had oversight of the football and men's and women's basketball programs daily operations, which included postseason and bowl travel coordination.

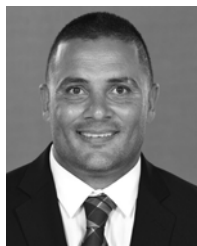

Twice Taylor has been recognized for his success by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. He was selected as the FCS Central Region AD of the Year in June 2008 and June 2012. Taylor received the Blue Key Honor Society Doctor of Service Award, one of the most prestigious honors an NDSU faculty member can be bestowed, in April 2012.

A student assistant to the associate athletics director in his undergraduate days at Arizona State University, Taylor arrived at NDSU after a 15-year stint at Navy (1986-2001) as an administrative assistant, assistant ticket manager, ticket manager, assistant athletic director for tickets and operations, and associate athletic director.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida.

He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have one daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.
